The Dispatching Postmaster or R. P. O. Clerk must neatly and correctly make up this card, addressing it for return to himself.
The Receiving Postmaster or R. P. O. Clerk must compare the articles received with the entries on reverse side of this card, and CORRECT errors, if any. He must then sign (not stamp) his name, postmark the card in the upper right-hand corner, and RETURN IT BY FIRST MAIL.

CAUTION.—Do not leave blank spaces between entries. Draw a diagonal line across card after the last entry. See Sec. 891, P. L. & R. of 1913.
 If any of the articles described are not in good condition, this card must be indorsed to that effect before being returned.
